

Numbers were down from last week with approximately 2400 cattle on offer. The market is still holding up reasonably well given the continuing dry but is reflecting the cheaper trends across the state.

STEERS

Vealer steers sold to 327c/kg (342c/kg), yearlings to 310c/kg (314c/kg) and grown steers to 290c/kg (282c/kg). Highlights included:

Angus steers (pictured top left) sold by B&S for Demartra made 307c/kg, averaging 480kg/$1477;

Steers sold by B&S on account Kyuna Pastoral Co made 307c/kg and averaged 376kg/$1167; Angus weaner steers (pictured 2nd from top) sold by CP on account Ian Cribb, North Park sold to 328c/kg for the lighter steers that averaged 279kg/$917 with the heavier calves making 318c/kg and averaging 366kg/$1165

Angus steers sold by DCM on account Wendy Pipe made 324c/kg and averaged 295kg/$956; Angus x steers sold by DCM on account D & S Bell made 326c/kg and averaged 275kg/$897; Black Simmental weaner steers sold by B&S on account Kunderang Pastoral Co made 322c/kg and averaged 270kg/$868;

Angus steers (pictured bottom left) sold by PSPF on account Ricky Brown made 324c/kg and averaged 243kg/$787; and

A single bullock sold by DCM on account Nw Webber made 250c/kg and came back at 742kg/$1855.

HEIFERS

Vealer heifers sold to 300c/kg (312c/kg), yearlings to 310c/kg (301c/kg) and grown heifers to 268c/kg (286c/kg). Highlights included:

Charolais x heifers sold by DCM made 290c/kg and averaged 404kg/$1172; and Angus vealer heifers (pictured left) sold by CP on account Ian Cribb made 290c/kg and averaged 334kg/$964

COWS

Cows sold to 220c/kg (223c/kg). Highlights included:

Angus cow sold by CP on account C & L Ware made 218c/kg and came back at 748kg/$1630; Angus cow sold by CP on account WR & BL Murray made 200c/kg and came back at 800kg/$1600; and Santa cows sold by DCM made 211c/kg and came back at 628kg/$1326.

BULLS

Bulls sold to 248c/kg (263c/kg) for an estimated top price of $2500.