

From the Sheep Yards

Demand outweighed supply with the market generally reflecting the reduction in numbers and increased competition. The best lambs were well up on last week's prices as were the grown sheep. As always, you can check out more photos on our TLSAA Facebook page.

Lambs

Older lambs topped today at $201 ($182) for a cracking pen of heavy lambs (pictured) sold by ELD on account AP & DT Tydd & Sons. Suckers topped at $170 ($135). Other good results included: 58-68 kg lambs sold by ELD on account McRae, Duri made $182; good lambs sold by DCM on account John Roworth made $178; lambs sold by B&S made $174; shorn lambs sold by NLP on account Janet Anderson made $172; and shorn lambs sold by IML on account Pike made $161 for the first pen of the sale. Hoggets sold to $130.

Dorper numbers were down on previous weeks with the best pen making $176 for Ricky Tetley, Quirindi selling through ELD. Other good results in the Dorsers included: $158 for CP, $155 for G&C and $148 for lightweight Dorper lambs sold by PPA.
