

From the Sheep Yards

Numbers almost tripled after two weeks of wet and windy conditions. The market was still strong but the increased supply meant that last week's record price of $204 stayed intact.

LAMBS

Top price of $182 ($204) ($200) for lambs was shared by Les and Gwen Coddington, Gunnedah for their lambs (pictured top left) sold through G&C and Roger and Geraldine Bomford, Barraba who sold their lambs (no picture sorry) through NLP. Les and Gwen also had the top priced lambs last week. Other highlights included: lambs sold by CP on account Wendouree Grazing made $180.

Dorper lambs (pictured 2nd from top) sold to $140 ($187) and were sold by NLP on account Graham Easey. Suckers sold to $138 (NQ) and hoggets sold to $110.50 ($119).

SHEEP

Ewes sold to $122 ($106) and ewes and lambs sold to $122 ($186) for Dorper ewes and lambs sold by NLP on account Graham Easey. Other highlights included 101 1st x 2010 drop ewes (pictured bottom) sold by IML on account Craig Pike, Werris Creek for $112. 1273 (438) ewes averaged $74.50 ($72) 419 (NQ) wethers sold to $100 ($50) and 20 (NQ) rams sold to $70 ($76).
