

Bit of rain and bit of feed has $80-$100/head impact

There was a very positive feeling today after Monday's extremely strong sale and rain over the last few days, although reported falls have varied greatly. The store market has gone from strength to strength with plenty of buyers, primarily from the local district, Upper Hunter and New England pushing prices up as much as $80-$100/head today. For more photos and videos check our Facebook page.

Steers

Vealer steers sold to $910 for Angus steers, straight off the cow, sold by IML on account Maynard Cattle Co, Merriwa. Weaners also sold to $910 ($720 before Christmas) for Angus steers (pictured above left) sold by PPA on account Hillview and yearling steers sold to $1160 for the first pen of the day, Angus steers in store condition (pictured above middle) sold by GC on account Grose made $1160. Other good results included: Angus weaner steers sold by ELD on account RIFA Salutary, "Middlebrook" Nundle sold to $570; Shorthorn weaner steers sold by DC on account Iona Downs sold to $700; Steers started on the grain sold by NL on account Shannon Livestock, Ebor made $840; Weaned steers sold by IML made $850; Black baldy steers (pictured above right) sold by NL made $940; Angus x steers sold by IML made $1090; and Charolais x yearling steers sold by IML made $1140.

Heifers

Angus vealer heifers (pictured above left) sold to $760 for Angus heifers sold by IML on account Maynard Cattle Co, Merriwa made $760 and younger sisters made $680. Older heifers sold to $1200 ($785 before Christmas) for Santa x Angus heifers (pictured above middle), 17-18 months old and scanned empty sold by GC on account JB Carpenter, "Carnegie" Niangala made $1200 and younger sisters made $1020. Other good results included:

Lovely Charolais x Santa heifers sold by NL on account Gallan Partnership made $860; and The heifer portion of the RIFA Salutory weaners sold by ELD topped at $500 for the lead pen.

Cows and calves

Cows and calves sold from $1100- $1500 for Angus cows and calves sold by IML. Good results included:

Shorthorn cows and calves (pictured above right) sold by DC on account Iona Downs made $1450;

Angus cows and calves sold by IML made $1450; and

Cows and calves sold by DC on account S & M Coxhead made $1300.

Bulls

Bulls sold to $3000 for Limousin bulls sold by NL on account Brigalow Limousins.

NEXT STORE SALE | Friday 21st February