

500c/kg the new 400 as records smashed

Chris Paterson was pretty pleased with himself today after knocking down steers for 514.2c/kg, the highest price he's ever sold cattle for in his 33 years as an auctioneer. The Angus vealer steers were also the dearest cattle ever sold in Tamworth, smashing last week's top price of 466c/kg last week, and came back at 186kg $953. Congratulations to the vendor Barry Miller on an outstanding job.

They were one of many highlights of almost 1500 cattle after the red-hot market last week. Although fat cows were slightly cheaper, store cows went around 300c/kg, steers made over 400c/kg as did a pen of Speckle Park heifers. A cracking Charolais x bullock, raised from a poddy calf, tipped the scales over 1000 kg and made over $2500 - another excellent result in a day that had more highlights than low points.
